MEET KENNY GLENN

SPEAKER | AUTHOR | MENTOR | EDUCATOR

Kenny Glenn is a charismatic speaker, author, and mentor who has dedicated his career to empowering students with the tools, mindset, and confidence to succeed beyond the classroom. Since 2016, he has been speaking in schools across the country, guiding students through the challenges of college and career preparation while inspiring them to define success on their own terms. He ensured that every audience has something to takeaway and apply to their life.

As a former School Board Member for a K–12 public school district, Kenny understands firsthand the policies, resources, and cultural shifts that impact students' lives. His work with the Leading Men Fellowship has advanced literacy rates and strengthened the pipeline of young men of color entering the education profession as licensed teachers.

Beyond the stage, Kenny has created and led impactful back-to-school events that energize entire communities, and his books are actively used in school and summer camp curricula to spark reflection, growth, and perseverance. He has also served as a speaker and chaperon during college visits, giving students real-world insights into higher education pathways, and continues to mentor both high school and college students as they navigate critical life transitions.

With a rare combination of lived experience, academic excellence, and educational leadership, Kenny brings a voice that resonates with students and a message that decision-makers trust to create lasting impact. Schools, districts, and organizations invest in Kenny when they want transformational student outcomes backed by expertise, lived experience, and measurable results.

WORK IN EDUCATION

Kenny Glenn's career in education reflects a powerful blend of leadership, advocacy, and hands-on student engagement. At just 22 years old, he became the youngest School Board Member in his district, where he gained firsthand experience shaping policies and initiatives that directly impacted student achievement. He went on to partner with the Leading Men Fellowship, advancing literacy rates while building a pipeline for young men of color to enter the classroom as licensed educators. Since 2016, Kenny has spoken in schools across the country, equipping students with the mindset, strategies, and confidence to pursue purposeful futures. His influence extends beyond the podium—designing and hosting back-to-school events that energize communities, publishing books now used in curricula, and guiding students through college visits with mentorship rooted in lived experience. Kenny's approach combines authenticity, reliability, and educational expertise, positioning him as both a trusted voice for students and a strategic partner for schools and organizations committed to long-term impact.

QUESTION EVERYTHING

Sparked by the question; what advice would you give your younger self? This led me to write this book to help students & graduates! Drawing from my journey as a top-ranked athlete, Master of Accounting graduate, CEO, and School Board member by age 23, I share honest “Dear Kenny” passages, stories, and reflection questions to guide readers. With practical advice and strategies, students will learn how to leverage school, prepare for life after graduation, build confidence, overcome obstacles, and make smarter financial decisions for adulthood.

We are committed to preparing all students for success in college and life, and Kenny’s books directly support that mission. Question Everything encourages critical thinking, curiosity, and resilience while promoting self-reflection, growth mindset, and perseverance—skills essential for thriving in high school, college, and beyond. With its emphasis on inquiry-based learning and practical guidance, the book and workbook empower students to think independently and engage actively in their education, making them especially impactful as students transition from middle to high school.

WORKSHOP TOPICS

- Goal Setting & Habits
- Social Media Branding
- Resume and Interview Skills
- Financial Literacy/Adulting 101
- Personal & Professional Development
- Thinking Like A Successful Business Owner

TESTIMONIALS

“Kenny Glenn is not just a motivational speaker — he is a force for good, a catalyst for change, and a true inspiration.”

Kenny Glenn is an extraordinary motivational speaker whose passion for empowering others sets him apart. As the author of Question Everything: Advice for Students & Graduates, he inspires students and graduates to embrace self-discovery, resilience, and growth. His ability to connect deeply with audiences leaves a lasting impact, instilling purpose and possibility in everyone he reaches.

- Dr. Laura Saylor | College Dean of Education

Kenny is charismatic and knows how to relate to and engage a young audience. His approachable attitude makes him the perfect auditor for any crowd. His book is relatable, realistic, and appealing. We are looking forward to bringing him back to speak to more Cincinnati Public School students.

- Dominica Brantley | College, Career + Community Resource Center at Cincinnati Public Schools

Kenny Glenn was a powerful Inspire HOPE speaker for Dayton High School. Kenny's message to students hit home as they found him to be relatable, knowledgeable, and caring. Kenny involved the students and had them share their “two words” that are going to drive them forward. His message of you too can overcome if you are willing to put in the work was well organized, had powerful personal stories that inspired students. Kenny has continued to connect and mentor some of our students after his speaking with our students. We now have students and staff reading his book Question Everything. Kenny Glenn is a can't miss Inspirational Speaker that 100% connected with our kids!
